GOSPEL, from Mark ...

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to the disciples and said, "Take it, this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

The Body of Christ can take many forms and we experience it in many ways. When we gather as the Church, we are the living Body. When we receive Communion, we participate in the Body, and when we live out our baptismal call, we are being the Body of Christ in the world. In each of the ways that the Body of Christ takes shape, we consider the presence of Christ. When we share Christ with others, we should be mindful of our presence in that moment of sharing.
