FYI’s

Since students will be exchanging Valentine treats this Friday, we will not be having Chip Day and will resume next month.

In packing snacks for your children to have throughout the day at school, please try your best to send them with HEALTHY snacks. When students bring in things like cookies, cakes & chips, it doesn’t result in the best learning and behavior in the Classroom, and we want to see your children do their best!

Letter of Intent & Registration Fees

If you have not already, please return your child's "Letter of Intent to Register" along with next year's Registration Fee (Due Mar. 1st).

Regardless of whether you plan to return or not, we need the form returned to help with our planning for next year.

Thank You!

GOSPEL: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus' fame was spreading, and more and more people were seeking healing from him. Amid this frenzy, Jesus sought time in solitude with his Father. He arose early, went to a deserted place, and prayed. The time with God rejuvenated him, and once again he readied himself to preach to the people. Our lives are busy, but we need to seek out peace and quiet, so our hearts, minds and spirits may be replenished and refocused to God's purposed in our lives.

Take time each day to listen to God's voice in prayer. Select a time that is suitable for all family members. Set up a prayer space in your home where family members may experience quiet time. You might have a small table on which you could place a Bible, candle, and a cross or prayer cards.

This week has been a really fun way for our children to celebrate a very big accomplishment, 100 days without interruptions!!!! I have said it before, but I will say it again, thank you, thank you, and thank you. This is not something that could have been done without your sacrifices and extra precautions.

The dress up days were a fun activity for the kids, and some comic relief. They enjoyed seeing each other in pajamas, mismatched clothing, with crazy hair, and dressing as if we were 100 years old. Some of the costumes were hilarious, and I really enjoyed this past week.

There are a number of people who have helped make this year work, and the parking lot helpers have helped sort out a lot of different issues. Jan O'Keefe, Sarah Pope, and Jerry Grzegorzcyk have all helped out in lining all of the cars up and making the transitions smooth. Thank you for helping us learn a new way to have pick up.

God Bless you all!!!
